SAP University Alliances — Student Recognition Awards

Cal Poly, Pomona students who complete a minimum of 3 SAP University Alliance-approved courses are eligible to receive an SAP University Alliances Student Recognition Award (formerly known as the SAP Certificate) signed by the SAP University Alliances (UA) program manager and the Dean of the College of Business Administration. TOM and EBZ students, including those in the MS Digital Supply Chain program, typically will qualify to receive this award. The SAP UA Student Recognition Award (SSRA) can also be earned by other students who take 3 of these courses as electives. Students in accounting, computer information system, finance, human resource management, marketing management are especially likely to benefit from the SAP UA Student Recognition Award.
