TABLE OF CONTENT

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Each application package should be tailored to address the specific criteria and intentions of each scholarship. The scholarship committee encourages students to look near and far in identifying directed investigations, focused research, and service opportunities to dedicate your scholarship towards. Global thinking and visioning is supported, while the committee recognizing the constraints of the pandemic. Applicants are encouraged to utilize faculty expertise in developing applications and specific lines of inquiry.

Students are encouraged to apply for as many scholarships as they qualify for (based on economic need, GPA, and/or other qualifying criteria). We welcome applicants who are citizens or eligible non-citizens per California Dream Act Application (CADAA) - AB540 to apply for the department's scholarships. For scholarships that consider demonstrated need, a current Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is required.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Wednesday, March 1, 2023

Apply via the Bronco Student Application (BSA) website: https://csupomona.academicworks.com/.

Reviewing Criteria

1) All scholarships require a complete BSA application to be considered, unless noted in the criteria.

2) Each scholarship applied for requires a bespoke one-page statement of intent responding to the specific scholarship descriptions. Generic statements will be scored lower than well-written statements addressing the intentions of the scholarship.

3) Digital Portfolio (8 two-page spreads, A4 size, 32mb maximum) is required for all scholarships over $1,000. Applications without the portfolio will be scored lower. Well curated and composed portfolios will earn stronger scores.

4) Short letters of references are required by some scholarships. Applications for these scholarships without all letters will be scored lower.

5) Additional application content and requirements are set forth in the scholarship descriptions, these may include a current resume, a formal headshot, research budget, and the number of letters of support that are required or optional. Incomplete applications will be scored lower.

Post-Award Obligations for Scholarship Recipients

- Scholarship recipients will be notified in April that they should attend the CPPLA Awards Ceremony in May 2023. Recipients are requested to submit a photograph or personal representation (1600 x 1600 pixels or larger .jpg or .png) by May 1st for use in the Scholarship Ceremony, CPPLA social media, and the ENV website.

- All students awarded scholarships must submit digital copies of a thank you letter and other application materials to the Landscape Architecture Department by June 1, 2023 (unless noted otherwise).

- Recipients of scholarships more than $1,000 are required to make a public presentation about their findings/activities at a Department event in Spring 2024.

AY2022/23 Landscape Architecture Department Scholarship Committee

Barry Lehrman (Chair), Carlos Flores, Weimin Li, Phil Pregil, and Claire Latane.

All scholarship questions should be directed to the department: LA@cpp.edu.

Award of Landscape Architecture Department Scholarships are at the discretion of the Scholarship Committee and Department, who reserve the right to determine the eligibility of all applicants, and to partially or fully distribute scholarship funds.

Distribution of scholarship funds is contingent on the applicant enrolling in BSLA or MLA course in Fall 2023 as a full-time or part-time student per the specific scholarship criteria. Students graduating in Spring 2023, or who have completed the BSLA or MLA studio sequence before Fall 2023 are not eligible to receive departmental scholarships.

B.L.A.C.K. in L.A. SCHOLARSHIP

https://csupomona.academicworks.com/opportunities/14246

To address the history of racism and discrimination in planning and design practices of the past, the profession of landscape architecture must broaden career opportunities and amplify voices, experiences, and perspectives beyond what is found in the current discourse of environmental design.

In recognition of this need, students, faculty and alumni of the Department of Landscape Architecture have established the BRAVELY LEADING ADVANCEMENT, CURIOSITY, AND KNOWLEDGE IN LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE (B.L.A.C.K. in L.A.) scholarship to prioritize a future that is community-focused, equitable, relevant, and sustainable.

B.L.A.C.K. in L.A scholarship supports the University's commitment to diversity and inclusion, by making higher education more accessible with one $3,000 scholarship to encourage students from diverse and/or socially and economically disadvantaged backgrounds pursue a Landscape Architecture education. Looking towards this desired future, the scholarship will be awarded annually to a new student in the Landscape Architecture major (undergraduate or graduate) who has demonstrated an interest in supporting, or involvement with, equity and inclusion efforts that benefit the long-term diversification of the discipline.

Eligibility Criteria

- Incoming, transfer, or current student to the BSLA or MLA program.
- 3.0 or better Major GPA.
- Demonstrated financial need.
- Interest in supporting, or involvement with, equity and inclusion efforts that benefit the long-term diversification of the discipline.

Specific Application Requirements

- Completed BSA application.
- Letter of intent specifically addressing the applicant's educational goals, financial need and the opportunity afforded by the scholarship.
- Digital portfolio:
  - Maximum of 8-page spreads of A4 size (16 total pages).
  - Portfolio projects that support application and applicant's design capabilities.

Post-award requirements will include a thank-you letter to donor and a public presentation of work/ideas supported by the funds.

If selected for award, recipients must provide a copy of portfolio and all required documents including thank you letter to the Landscape Architecture Department office. The presentation must be made within one year of receiving the scholarship.

Distribution

One $3,000 award. Enrollment in at least 6-units in Fall 2023 is required to receive the funds. Scholarship funds will be distributed by CPP on 8/15/23.
